

Taiwan Lectures on Chinese Studies invites

Professor Chih-yu Shih to Deliver a Lecture Online

NCL hold the second Online Taiwan Lectures on Chinese Studies Series with Institute of Oriental Studies of the Russian Academy of Sciences on November 26. The lecture given by Prof. Chih-yu Shih, entitled “In the Intellectual History of China Studies: Colonialism, Religion, and Their Post-Chinese Consequences”.

This lecture attracted more than 70 audiences attended online to listen Prof. Shih explained his political studies experience, especially focus on his observation about the interaction between self-understandings and “Post-Chineseness” in Taiwan, Hong Kong and Chinese communities in South East Asia.

This is the first academical event co-host by NCL and Russian Academy of Sciences after 5 years. After the lecture, The Center for Chinese Studies also provided website link and introduced related information on the “Research Grant for Foreign Scholars in Chinese Studies” and the “MOFA Taiwan Scholarship” to encourage outstanding foreign students to apply and study abroad in Taiwan

Prof. Liu's online speech